FROM THE MUDDY. - Colonel Isaac Jen-nings; who lives at St. Thomas, 120 miles from Pioche, and at the junction of the Muddy and Vingin, 25 miles from the Colorado, arrived in town yesterday. Col. Jenninge has been among the Indians in this section of the country for the last 23 years, and has acquired valuable knowledge of their habits, desires, etc. We learn from him that the U. S. Indian Agent, Ingalls, contemplates establishing an Indian Reservation on the Muddy, if fair terms can be made with the settlers: and Col. Jennings thinks it can be done, and that it would be to the advantage of both the Government and the settlers to do so, as the Indians are scattered over an immense scope of country, probably as large as the State of Illinois, and beyoud the proper control of the Federal Government; but once gathered upon a reservation, little more trouble would be had with them. Col. Jennings is aiding the Indian Agent in his endeavors to control the "noble red man of the forest," and keep him in proper bounds. Indian Agent Ingalls is expected to return about the 5th of next month. General Crook requested Col. Jennings to send him 75 friendly Indians to fight the Apaches in Arizona, and 60 were sent accordingly. Col. Jennings says Gen. Crook intends making a vigorous campaign north and east of San Francisco Mountain, and expects to have the country open for the passage of prospectors and adventurers within the next three months.

Row in Chinatown.-Yesterday morning the Chinese portion of our town was the scene of a row which might have resulted seriously but for the timely interference of a citizen. The belligerents were Jim and Ah Tim, the former of whom gave undubitable evidence that he had either hunted for somebody and found him, or had been roughly assailed. As he entered Justice Stoutenburgh's office the streaks of blood across his face gave it the appearance of a railroad map of the United States. The other was not so badly beaten, having only a wound on his left forearm. The fighters were accompanied by officer Boyd and Charles Livermore, a citizen. Com-plaint was made in due form, when Jim made a statement showing that the row grew out of a gambling dispute. Ah Tim was unable to make himself und rstood Mr. Livermore was sworn, and stated that hearing a noise in Chinatown, he went there and found Jim with the cue of his antagonist around his arm and a loaded pistol in his hand. Fearing that damage might ensue to out-side parties he arrested both of them and handed them over to them and handed them over to officer Boyd. The cases were disposed of very promptly, each being required to pay $20, and comprehending the sitnation, they departed, in custody of officer Boyd, to interview Sam Sing on the currency question.

Procus Directory .- A directory of the business houses of Pioche is being gotten up in map form by M. Chase & Co. It will contain the cards of the principal business houses, with a list of the County officers and panoremic views of the town from different points. The map will be 4x5 feet. Cepies will be posted in all the hotels, radroad cars, express and stegs offices from Cheyenne to San Francisco, and on all branch rouds leading from intermediate points. Mr. Chase will call upon business men to-day, and hopes to receive proper en-couragement to be able to complete his work by the 1st of January. Great benefit will doubtless result to the busi-ness men of Pioche by the circulation of the map contemplated.

LEGISLATORS ELECTED .- Some of our exchanges, in a political classification of the members of the Legislature, claim five Republicans from Lincoln county. In this they are not correct. Our delegation stands two Republicans to three Democrats, viz.: R. S. Clapp, Rep., Senator for the long term, who has 153 majority; John R. Wilson, Dem., Sena-tor for the short term, who has 39 maority; P. L. Shoaff, Dem., Thomas Walface, Dem., and P. A. Craigne, Rep., Assemblymen. Shoaff has 107 votes over the highest defeated candidate for Assembly, Wallace 85, and Craigue 39.

THEATRE, - The Mason & Lorraine Troupe gave an entertainment last night to a well filled house. The minstrelsy was very creditable, and we were glad to see that it was well received by the audience. Miss Maggie Knight's singing gave evidence of talent, which needs only to be brought out by cultivation and practice. She made a fine appearance on the stage, and is a very pretty The Company will give an entertrinment this evening, when we hope to see a good attendance.

NEW STORE. - Messrs, Mahoney & O'Toole are about opening a store on Main street, next door to the Descret Telegraph Company's office, This new firm commenced business here under favorable auspicies, with a superior stock and ample capital, and having conti-dence in the tuture of Pioche, are not experimenting, but intend to do a legitimate business. Their business there is in the hands of Roger Kieley, who will prove himself worthy in all respects.

JOHN R. JAMES, Superintendent of the Huhn & Hunt and the Amelia mines. will leave Pioche in a few days for San Francisco, to be absent for six weeks or two months. During his absence the business of the Huhn & Hunt will be in business of the Huhn & Hunt will be in the charge of D. B. Hunt, as Superin-tendent of the mine, who will pay all bills contracted by the company. A. J. Blair will have charge of the Amelia, and at-tend generally to its interests.

FINED.-Two men, whose names need not appear in this connection, were brought up yesterday for disturbing the peace by using obscene language in a lodging house. They pleaded guilty and were fixed each $5 and costs.

Lose Cuxons Persons in this country often loose their checks, either by accident or theft. The proper way is to stop payment at the bank where issued, and notify the public by advertisement not to negotiate such checks,

MESSES. WOODBUFF & MURPHY have opened a large boot and shoe establishment on Meadow Valley street, opposite the old thesio Suilding. Mr. Murphy was formerly of the cele brated firm of Guerin & Son, San Francisco, and Mr. Woodruff is known to the people of Pieche as a first-clas workman. Parties may therefore paly upon obtaining a good article from this firm.

DRY Goods, erc. - James Finlayson, late of Hamilton, has come to Pioche to engage in business. He purposes opening a store in Ward's building, Main street, for the sale of dry goods, gentle-men's furnishing goods, carpets, oil cloths and wall paper. Pan of the stock is now here, and the balance is expected in a few days, when he will begin his business in earnest.

ALDINE LEDGE -Since our notice of this mine last week we learn from Chas. Goedicke, the Superintendent, that the appearance of the mine has greatly improvid, giving it additional promise of developing into a first-class mine in a short space of time. Mr. Goedicke feaves for San Francisco to-day for the purpose of scenring the incorporation of the THEATRE BUILDING. -- Certain enterprising gentlemen of this place, desiring to advance the general interest and give our town a more city-like appearance, have determined to erect a theatre of creditable proportions and proper construction. At present writing the mat-ter has not taken such shape as to admit of giving details.

For the Bay. -Tim Coakley, of the Portland mine, leaves here to-day for San Francisco. Mr. Coakley is un oldtime miner, and by unyielding persever-ance has placed himself upon a good financial foundation. He is one of the first locators of the Portland, one of the most promising mines in this district.
